

After the children's visit to Martin Mere and after completing the nature activities provided on the WWT website the eco representatives set up an initiative to help our local environment.

The children at Sacred heart decided to plant trees in our local environment with help from our local community. The children understand the importance that trees have on the planet and on living things and they wanted to make a difference.